From Thursday August 20. to Monday August 24. 1696.

Messina, July 16. N. S.

ON the 14th instant arrived here the Bolton Galley, Capt. Leonard Moncher, in 18 days from Cadiz, bound to Cyprus and Scanderoon. We have advice that the Pope's and Maltese Galleys are passed by Zant in their Voyage towards the Levant, to join the Venetian Fleet.

Leghorne, Aug. 6. On the 31st past sailed hence 3 of the Great Duke's Galleys, and two of Genoua for Messina. The Gosfright, Capt. Appleby, will sail to morrow for Scanderoon.

Venice, Aug. 10. The Senate have received Letters from the Captain-General, dated the 25th of June, when he was with the Venetian Fleet at Porto Porto, expecting a great Convoy under the Command of Signior Duodo, and the Auxiliary Galleys, and intending so soon as they arrived, to put to Sea, and to direct his Course towards the Archepelago, leaving a sufficient Force to secure the Pass of the Isthmus of Corinth, in case the Turks should make any attempt to enter into the Morea with the Troops they have drawn together about Thebes. The last advices from the Levant say, the Turkish Fleet lay within the Dardanelli.

Turin, Aug. 11. The Truce agreed on between the Duke of Savoy and the French, which expires to morrow, is prolonged to the 20th of this Month; In the mean time the Armies have changed their Camps; the Allies being moved nearer to the State of Milan, and the French nearer to Pignerol; The former decamped the 3d from Moncalier, and having passed the River Po, came in two days marches to Chivas, where they are still Encamped: The French Army marched the 7th from Voluera, and lie now Encamped in 3 separate Bodies, at Vigon, Pancallier, and Macello. The Duke of Savoy has put all his Troops into Garisons; and endeavours all he can to have the Neutrality for Italy accepted by the Allies, which they seem not at all enclined to: The Emperor's Resolution in this Affair is expected by Count Mansfelt, who arrived last night in the Camp at Chivas in his way hither.

Madrid, Aug. 1. The Council of State has been often Assembled about the Affairs of Savoy, and several Expresses have been dispatched to Turin and Milan, with their Resolution about carrying on the War in those Parts. It continues to be said at Court, That the Queen is with Child. The Flota bound to New-Spain sailed the 23d of the last month from Cadiz with 6 Spanish Men of War. The Bishop of Salsona is named to go Ambassador from this Crown to the Emperor, and will in a short time begin his Journey to Vienna. Don Francisco de Velasco, the new Viceroy of Catalonia arrived the last week in the Spanish Camp at Ostalricke. The French Army is retired towards Gironne.

Corunna, Aug. 19. They write from Malaga of the 31st past, That a Dutch Privateer had brought into that Port two French Prizes, the one a Satea laden with Silk and Cotton from Constantinople; and the other a Ship of 150 Tuns, bound to Barbary to lade Corn, having on board 7000 Pieces of Eight. The Letters from Lisbon of the 7th say, His Majesty's Ship Burlington, with the Ships under her Convoy, was arrived at that Port. The Dolphin sailed the 8th from Vigo with several Vessels for Lisbon.

From the Imperial Camp under the Elector of Saxony near Temeswaer, Aug. 3. The Army having been encamped several near days Aranka, our Generals, during that time, received repeated Advices of the Grand Signior's march towards Belgrade, and dispatched Orders to all the Forces that were near enough to join us, to hasten their march for that purpose, it being resolved to endeavour by all means, to engage the Enemy in a Battle, and in order thereunto to advance towards this place, as if 'twas intended to besiege it, thereby to oblige the Turks to come to its Relief, and divert their march from Peter Waradin and Effecke; accordingly on the 30th past we decamped from Aranka, and marched to Felith, and on the 31st to Bilif, where we rested the first instant; The same day the Auxiliary Troops of Denmark joined us, and we had advice, that the Brandenburghers were come within 5 or 6 days march of us; The Parties that were sent out to get Intelligence, returned with several Prisoners, who confirmed the Grand Signior's arrival in the Neighbourhood of Belgrade, and that he had ordered Bridges to be laid both over the Danube and the Save. The 2d we continued our march, and came hither this day, encamping in two Lines almost within Cannon-shot of the Town. In the Afternoon General Rabutin joined us with 8 Regiments of Horse and one of Foot from Transilvania, and we expect the Brandenburghers every day; when our Army will be composed of 50000 fighting Men, and by the best Accounts we receive of the Enemies strength, they are not above 60000, great part of them being new raised and undisciplined Troops.

Vienna, Aug. 15. We are in great Expectation of a Battle in Hungary; for by the last Letters from the Imperial Army, dated the 6th in the Morning, which arrived here some days ago by Express, we understand, That the Elector of Saxony having received Information that the whole Turkish Army had passed the Danube between Semlyn and Belgrade, he held a Council of War, and in pursuance of what was there resolved, the Army decamped the 5th from Temeswaer, and marched to meet the Enemy, having sent away the heavy Artillery and Baggage, with a sufficient Guard to Chonad. Letters from Peter Waradin of the 6th instant say, the Turks had sent a Detachment to attack the Fortress of Moravis, but were repulsed; and that the Turkish Army passed the Danube the 5th of this month. The Emperor is sending an Ambassador to Poland, to be present at the approaching Election.

Francfort, Aug. 22. The Confederate Army on the Rhine has been Encamped for some time at Rauchenberg, during which there have only passed some Skirmishes between Parties; but it's said, that so soon as we hear the Landtgrave of Hesse, who returns with his Troops from the Meuse is come as far as Coblents, we shall pass the Rhine; Prince Lewis having ordered a great many Boats to be provided in the mean time; the French Army marched the 18th from Munsheim to Leiningen, where they still continue.

Cologne, Aug. 24. The German Troops under the Command of the Landtgrave of Hesse are advanced as far as Bon, where they rest this day, and to morrow will continue their march towards Coblents, in order to pass the Moselle. A Body of French Troops march likewise towards the Moselle, under Command of the Marquis of Harcourt.
